

JAMES RIVER ART LEAGUE

ISSUE OF NOVEMBER 2001

I Hope everyone is enjoying this beautiful fall weather.

Our next meeting is scheduled for Friday, November 16th, with refreshments beginning at 11:15 am. Looking forward to seeing you there.

The fall schedule started off with a great program in September and a fun painting excursion to Bill Youngblood's in October. The weather was perfect. THANK YOU Bill for a great time and your warm hospitality.

Our November meeting should be interesting with Richmond watercolorist JILL CHAFFIN providing us with a slide presentation.

The show at Jimmy's Too restaurant was put together hastily but looked great. The show comes down Saturday, Nov 17th at 10:00 a.m. PLEASE be on time to pick up your paintings. Jimmy has no place to store painting and has another show being hung later that day.

A friendly reminder that dues were due in SEPTEMBER. Please send your $25.00 check to Anne Negus or bring it to the November meeting.

Our Christmas Luncheon at the Virginia Museum is scheduled for Dec. 14th. We will meet in the main lobby at 11:00 a.m. where Helen Sanders will give us a guided tour. Lunch will be in the members dining room and is currently scheduled for 12:30 p.m. Our menu will be as follows: Mushroom, spinach and gruyere quiche served with fresh fruit and a mixed green salad with lemon, raspberry or chocolate mousse for desert. (Lunch will include bread, coffee, tea or milk).

The cost per person is $14.00 including tax and tip.

Reservations have been made for 20 and will be on a first come, first serve basis. Send your reservation sheet along with your $14.00 to Anne Negus, 12431 Morgans Glen Circle, Glenn Allen VA 23059 not later than DEC 6th.

Wishing you all a happy holiday season. The next news letter will be out in January 2002.
