Next REGULAR MEETING at St
Matthews Church

Friday, March 18
At 11:30am

CHANGE IS IN THE AIR

Now that it is almost the spring of the year 2011, the James River Art League is preparing to adopt a new logo to be used in our print media and on-line publications and to accept a new slate of officers for the 2011 – 2013 term.

New Logo Design

At the January meeting members had the opportunity to vote on a new logo design, selecting from among the top four entries which had been submitted to the Board in early January. All of the entries were excellent, and it was a close contest, with a small number of votes cast in favor of retaining the existing logo; however, the winning entry was a new design that was submitted by Anne Negus, featuring the motifs of both a river and a paintbrush,

Congratulations to Annie, and thanks to everyone who participated by submitting their designs to the committee! Our winner was presented with a $50 certificate for art supplies, which she has generously requested the Board to donate to Pine Camp.

Our new logo design is shown in concept at right. The logo committee and designer are currently working with a local printer to refine the elements of the design and create a digital image that can be used in all types of media. Expect to see the new logo on our next newsletter!

New JRAL Officers

A nominating committee is now being formed for the purpose of presenting a slate of nominees for new JRAL officers for the September 2011 – August 2013 term. The positions which are to be filled by election by the membership at the May meeting include the following:

- President
- First Vice President and Program Chairman
- Second Vice President and Parliamentarian
- Treasurer
- Recording Secretary
- Corresponding Secretary

A survey will be passed out at the March meeting to determine interest in these positions. Serving on the Board as an officer or committee chair is a wonderful way to get involved with and excited about the work of the League, make new friends, and help shape the future of our organization! Please consider sharing your talent with us.

THE JAMES RIVER ART LEAGUE WANTS YOU!

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

My month in Florida was both relaxing and re-energizing. Besides the sun, sea, and warm(er) weather, there are always numerous exhibits and art activities in the area. I was pleased and impressed by a trip to St. Petersburg to visit the Salvador Dali Museum. The building itself is a work of art, and is the home of the world's most comprehensive collection of the artist's works. In addition to 96 oil paintings, from 1917-1970, there are over 100 watercolors and drawings, and 1,300 graphics, sculptures, objects d'art, and photographs. The exhibit is diverse and spans his Impressionist, Cubist, and Surrealist periods. It was challenging and fascinating to try and find a painting within a painting, a trademark of many of Dali's works. About twenty years ago, my husband and I saw a very much smaller collection of Dali's art in his hometown of Figueres, Spain, in the northeast, close to the border with France.

I am so sorry to have missed the agenda-filled regular meeting in January. Among the important items was the voting on a new logo. Congratulations to Anne Negus for the selection of her logo to represent our James River Art League.

On February 18, we enjoyed an informative guided tour of Staples Fine Art, followed by a plentiful, delicious lunch at the Kona Grill. I think we all wished we had started with the desserts.

The Board met on March 4. Three artists presented their work, and were voted into our league. Our new members are Carol Matuschek, Suzanne Spooner-Munch, and Diane Smith. Welcome!

After hearing the presentation and reading the literature about ART180, the Board voted to give a donation to this worthwhile organization. It was also suggested that we investigate ways that interested members can help the staff with volunteer work.

The next JRAL exhibit is at Uptown Gallery, March 26-May 26; and the First Friday Art Walks and receptions April 1 and May 6, 5:00-9:00 p.m. And please join us on the next field trip April 15 to the National Portrait Gallery and Smithsonian American Art Museum in Washington, D.C. Not only do our field trips give us new knowledge and insights, but they are so much fun.

I look forward to seeing you at our next regular meeting on March 18.

Jane Cox

A THEME FOR MONTPELIER

At the March meeting the JRAL members elected to go with a "Flora and Fauna" theme for the Montpelier show in July. Accordingly, paintings depicting any sort of plant or animal life are appropriate for this exhibit. Suggestions include (but are not limited to) floral still lifes, gardens, landscapes, pet portraits, barnyard animals, fish, wildlife, and so forth.

Note: from Roman mythology, "Flora" was the goddess of flowers, and "Faunus" was a god of nature and fertility.

Let's make this the lushest show ever!

Jay Barrows has been employed by the Lewis family for the past 40 years, functioning as both the curator and as the assistant curator. You may remember they were also the founders of "Best Products" in 1958. The duties of Jay's position include keeping records, producing art forums, transporting, shipping, and receiving art. He is in charge of community events and all public activities regarding the Lewis family.

He has been awarded the "Lifetime Achievement Teresa Pollock award" by the Richmond Magazine. He and his wife, Cindy Neuschwander, are regarded as leaders in the Richmond Art Scene. Cindy is a local artist and currently has a show at the Reynolds Gallery through the end of March.

We are very excited to have the opportunity to hear about Jay's experiences as a local art dealer and curator.

A light went out on the Richmond Art Scene when Shelly Bechtel Shepherd passed away on January 14th after a long battle with cancer. A nationally noted watercolorist and teacher at the Visual Arts Center and VMFA Studio School, Shelly influenced a large number of students in the Richmond area, including many JRAL members, who will remember her for her straightforward, no nonsense approach to imparting the principles of watercolor technique. As they liked to say at Nimrod (perhaps her favorite venue), "Bigger brushes, more water, (more wine)."

A celebration of Shelly's life was held at the Visual Arts Center on January 22nd, at which it was announced that the Center's "Distinguished Teaching Award" would now be named after her.

An exhibit of watercolors by Shelly's students is currently on display at the Visual Arts Center through March 18.

About Our Organization

The James River Art League was originally organized by members of a painting class taught by Helen Bailey. Through Helen's persuasion, an art league was formed south of the James River in 1964. At that time, the meetings were held in a small white house on the grounds of the Westover Hills School. Over the years, their membership grew, and soon the League included members from across the James River, and into the City of Richmond and beyond. Today we are 71 members strong and growing. We welcome inquiries and applications from artists in the Richmond area seeking to make connections.
