

James River Art League 2012– 2013 Program Schedule

September 21, 2012	Meeting Program Speaker	Virginia Impressionist, Chuck Larivey, speaks to us about “The Business of Art.”
October 26, 2012 Note this is the fourth Friday of the month	VMFA Field Trip	Double Feature at the Museum! Tour the Chihuly exhibit in the morning, enjoy lunch on your own at Amuse or Best Café, and see Fine Arts and Flowers at your leisure in the afternoon.
November 16, 2012	Meeting Program Demonstration	Local Artist and teacher and JRAL member, Donna Allen demonstrates her approach to the watercolor portrait.
December 14, 2012	Holiday Luncheon	Join friends and fellow JRAL members for the annual holiday luncheon in the beautiful Marble Hall at the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts. Twelve noon.
January 18, 2013	Meeting Program Speaker	Marlene Paul, Director of Art 180, tells us about the work of this local organization that creates and provides art-related programs for young people living in challenging circumstances.
February 15, 2013	VHS Field Trip Change	Visit the Virginia Historical Society to learn about the project to restore the impressive Memorial Military Murals by Charles Hoffbauer. See the restoration work in progress under the guidance of chief conservator, Cleo Mullins.
March 15, 2013	Meeting Program Video Presentation	Watch “Snow Hill,” a self-portrait of Andrew Wyeth, one of our greatest American painters. This film incorporates his great works of art along with home movies of N. C. Wyeth and authorized interviews with Andrew Wyeth and famed model, Helga Testorf.
April 19, 2013	Out-of-town Field Trip Bus or Car Pool?	Travel to Newport News to see “Working South,” a special exhibit of paintings by nationally recognized watercolorist, Mary Whyte, at the Peninsula Fine Arts Center. Afterward visit the Maritime Museum next door and enjoy lunch in the Museum Café.
May 17, 2013	Annual Meeting	Share results and enjoy critiques of work stemming from the Member Challenge that was issued in September. Local artist/teacher, Christopher Wynn, will provide critiques.